HOUSE OF RUTH 50TH ANNIVERSARY

GIFTS FOR FAMILIES

Every holiday season, the House of Ruth community rallies to ensure that every program participant we serve receives a gift. We call our program, Gifts for Families.

Spreading the joy of giving and receiving, you will ensure that every child has at least two presents, and that every adult has the ability to purchase something just for them.

Gifts for Families is a program for all ages to make a difference.

Perfect for a family or friend activity; or for a corporate give-back initiative.

Within this booklet, you will find ways you can participate.

Thank you for spreading the joy of the season!

Ways to Participate

Donate to Ensure Gifts for All

Donate to the Gifts for Families program to ensure all children and women receive gifts. Visit the dedicated donation page, https://houseofruth.org/gff.

Adopt a Program

Adopt the single women or mothers in one of our housing programs to provide gifts for all. Each woman must receive a $50 Visa gift card and gifts of your choosing.

If you would like to adopt a program, contact us at development@houseofruth.org.

Note: Children cannot be adopted. All gifts for children are accounted for in our registry.

HOUSE OF RUTH

House of Ruth empowers women, children, and families to rebuild their lives and heal from trauma, abuse, and houselessness.

Founded in 1976, House of Ruth has been a leading provider of housing and supportive services for women, children, and families experiencing trauma associated with domestic violence, houselessness, mental health, substance use disorder, and poverty in Washington, D.C.

Our continuum of services includes

- Housing Services through 12 service-enriched housing programs;
- Child and Family Development Center at Kidspace; and
- Counseling Services available at no-cost to anyone residing in the D.C., Maryland, and Virginia who has experienced domestic violence.

We serve more than 1,000 individuals annually.
